

G 2305

Cultural diversity in the migration society

2 hrs per week / 3 credits

Prof Dr Regine Morys

Overall aims and significance of the module as it relates to the professional qualification:

The students acquire knowledge and understanding of diversity in modern societies from an intersectional point of view. We discuss how to cope with this in institutional settings for young children.

Contents:

- Migration and cultural diversity within young children and their families
- Wording: Culture, intercultural, transcultural?
- Educational approaches (e.g. anti-bias approach, antirassism)

Examination:

The examination consists of an extended essay.