

International and transnational fields of action – Challenges for social work practice / General part of the degree program
2 hrs per week / 3 credits

Ms Kathrin Ilg-Asiedu

In this course, challenges for social work practice will be discussed within the framework of international and transnational fields of action.

The course can be taken both by incoming students from partner universities and students of Esslingen university.